

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the many contributions of Hispanic Americans have enriched the prosperity, culture, heritage, and history of Washington State; and

WHEREAS, Hispanic Americans sharing their ethnic heritage provides strength in today's ever changing world and marketplace; and

WHEREAS, young Hispanic Americans represent the future leaders, educators, and workers of our state, and it is important to continue to advance the traditions of family and community through which Hispanic Americans have made invaluable contributions to Washington; and

WHEREAS, as we acknowledge the unique contributions of Hispanic Americans throughout the United States at this time each year, festivals in Washington State will mark the independence of Mexico, and the Central American countries of Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Christine O. Gregoire, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim September 15 through October 15, 2009, as in Washington State, and I urge all citizens to join me in recognizing the Hispanic community's many contributions to the quality of life in our state.

Hispanic Heritage Month

Signed this 9th day of September, 2009

Chris Gregoire

Governor Christine O. Gregoire